

Crews from the Central Division of the Hamilton County Engineer's Office recently constructed reinforced concrete drilled shaft retaining wall along 65' of Dry Ridge Road. The site is located between Brehm and Scull Roads. The area experienced a substantial landslide in February 2012 necessitating the work. The project was completed during a road closure August 27 through August 31.

