

D94344708

COURT OF COMMON PLEAS
DIVISION OF DOMESTIC RELATIONS
HAMILTON COUNTY, OHIO

ENTER

ENTERED
AUG 25 2011

Case No: M11-00004
ADMINISTRATIVE TEMPORARY RESTRAINING ORDER

IT IS HEREBY ORDERED PURSUANT TO LOCAL RULE: effective on the date on which the Complaint is filed, both Plaintiff and Defendant are hereby restrained and enjoined from:

1. Directly or indirectly harassing, interfering with, assaulting, or doing bodily harm to the other party or child(ren) of the parties;
2. Removing the minor child(ren) of the parties from Hamilton County for the purpose of establishing a permanent residence, or concealing the whereabouts of the minor child(ren).

IT IS FURTHER ORDERED THAT both Plaintiff and Defendant are hereby restrained and enjoined from taking any of the following actions to defeat the other party in obtaining an equitable division of marital property, a distributive award, or spousal or other support:

3. Directly or indirectly changing, terminating, lessening the value of or failing to renew the present health, dental, hospitalization, life, home, automobile or other insurance coverage or removing the other party or the children as a beneficiary on any policy or retirement benefits;
4. Incurring debt in the name of the other party;
5. Encumbering, disposing of, selling, damaging, destroying, lessening the value of, pledging as security, or in some manner secreting the marital assets of the parties including, but not limited to: real estate, household furniture and furnishings, appliances, automobiles, or other vehicles of the parties;
6. Withdrawing, spending, encumbering, pledging as security, or disposing of stocks, bonds, and/or funds in any financial institution.

This Order shall not prevent the payment of ordinary and necessary business expenses and living expenses consistent with the practice of the parties during the marriage and shall not prevent the payment of necessary and reasonable attorney fees, litigation and court costs in this action.

This Order remains in effect until the Court issues an order that modifies or terminates the same or a Decree is issued in the case.