

Title XIX: Temporary Restraining Orders (Effective 9-1-2011)

19.0 Issuance of Administrative Order and Additional Orders

At the time of the filing of an action for divorce, legal separation, or annulment an Administrative Temporary Restraining Order will be issued. Plaintiff shall be deemed served with the Administrative Temporary Restraining Order upon filing the complaint. The Administrative Temporary Restraining Order shall be served on the Defendant with the summons. A request for additional restraining orders in comportment with Civ. R. 75(I) may be made by the filing of a motion and an affidavit of a party. Any request under this Rule may be set for hearing at the discretion of the assigned judge.

19.1 Dissolving Order

A party against whom an Administrative Temporary Restraining Order or other ex-parte restraining order has been granted may file a motion, supported by affidavit, requesting that such order be dissolved. If the motion seeks a partial dissolution of a restraining order on a bank account for purposes of satisfying outstanding obligations, such motion may be granted ex-parte at the discretion of the assigned Judge. All other motions to dissolve restraining orders shall be set for hearing before the assigned Judge.
