

Title XIX: Temporary Restraining Orders (PROPOSED RULE)

19.0 Issuance of Administrative Order and Additional Orders

At the time of the filing of an action for divorce or legal separation, an Administrative Temporary Restraining Order will be issued. Plaintiff shall be deemed served with the Administrative Temporary Restraining Order upon filing the complaint. The Administrative Temporary Restraining Order shall be served on the Defendant with the summons. A request for additional restraining orders in comportment with Civ.R. 75(I) may be made by the filing of a motion and an affidavit of a party. Any request under this Rule may be set for hearing at the discretion of the assigned judge.

19.1 Dissolving Order

A party against whom an Administrative Temporary Restraining Order or other ex-parte restraining order has been granted may file a motion, supported by affidavit, requesting that such order be dissolved. If the motion seeks a partial dissolution of a restraining order on a bank account for purposes of satisfying outstanding obligations, such motion may be granted ex-parte at the discretion of the assigned Judge. All other motions to dissolve restraining orders shall be set for hearing before the assigned Judge.

COURT OF COMMON PLEAS
DIVISION OF DOMESTIC RELATIONS
HAMILTON COUNTY, OHIO

Case No: M11-0004

ADMINISTRATIVE TEMPORARY

RESTRAINING

ORDER

IT IS HEREBY ORDERED pursuant to Local Rule that effective on the date on which the Complaint is filed both Plaintiff and Defendant are hereby restrained and enjoined from:

1. Directly or indirectly harassing, interfering with, assaulting, or doing bodily harm to the other party or child(ren) of the parties;
2. Removing the minor child(ren) of the parties from Hamilton County for the purpose of establishing a permanent residence, or concealing the whereabouts of the minor child(ren) of the parties for the duration of this action;
3. Directly or indirectly changing, terminating, lessening the value of or failing to renew the present health, dental, hospitalization, life, home, automobile or other insurance coverage or removing the other party as a beneficiary on any policy or retirement benefits;
4. Contracting upon the other party's credit in any manner;
5. Encumbering, disposing of, lessening the value of, or in some manner secreting the assets of the marriage of the parties, including but not limited to real estate, household furniture and furnishings, or appliances;
6. Selling, damaging, destroying, encumbering, disposing of, or lessening the value of automobiles, or other vehicles of the parties;
7. Withdrawing, spending, encumbering, or disposing of funds deposited in any financial institution, including but not limited to bank accounts other than checking accounts, savings accounts, money markets, credit unions, pension plans, or certificates of deposit.

This Order shall not prevent the payment of ordinary and necessary business expenses and living expenses consistent with the practice of the parties during the marriage and shall not prevent the payment of necessary and reasonable attorney fees, litigation and court costs in this action.

This Order remains in effect until the Court issues an order that modifies or terminates the same or a Decree is issued in this case.
