Community Wellness Day to offer free health screenings, presentations and information to local residents

- WHEN: TOMORROW, May 7
12:00pm – 3:00pm
*Commissioner Hartmann to open event and lead welcome at 12:00pm
(flier attached)
- WHERE: Annunciation Elementary School gymnasium
3545 Clifton Avenue
Cincinnati, Ohio 45220
- WHAT: In an effort to educate residents about health, safety and financial wellness in Cincinnati, Dr. Jamila Maddox has organized the first annual Community Wellness Day. Community organizations will be on hand to share wellness resources through fitness presentations, free health screenings and information tables. The Hamilton County Coalition to Stop Fraud, Scams & Abuse will host an information table with materials for seniors, students and job seekers to help them avoid consumer fraud, identity theft and scams.
- Hamilton County Commission President Greg Hartmann and other local community leaders will welcome residents at the start of the event. Cincinnati's Community Wellness Day is part of a nationwide initiative to educate citizens on the importance of health, safety, environmental and financial wellness.

About the Hamilton County Coalition to Stop Fraud, Scams & Abuse

The Hamilton County Coalition to Stop Fraud, Scams & Abuse is a partnership of social service agencies, business leaders, nonprofits and local law enforcement united to pro-actively educate Hamilton County residents on the dangers of consumer fraud, identity theft and scams in our community. The Coalition developed a Comprehensive Community Plan to help consumers, created a website www.hamilton-co.org/fraud and conducts monthly community outreach events to educate citizens in our community to detect, prevent and report fraud and scams.
