WHEN: TODAY, May 20
10:30am

WHERE: Mayerson Jewish Community Center
8485 Ridge Road

WHAT: Senior citizens are one of the most vulnerable populations to fraud and scams. From telemarketing scams, to home improvement scams, to identity theft, seniors can be the prime targets of crimes that can rob them of their life savings and their good credit.

To help educate our elderly residents on the dangers of financial exploitation, the Hamilton County Coalition to Stop Fraud, Scams & Abuse will present to the Mayerson Jewish Community Center, as part of a 'Senior Fraud' month tour of several senior centers and living communities in May.

Hamilton County Commissioner Greg Hartmann and Laurie Petrie from the Council on Aging of Southwest Ohio will share possible signs of fraud, how seniors can protect themselves, and where victims should report these crimes.
