MEMORANDUM

TO: Hamilton County Residents

FROM: Commissioner Greg Hartmann

DATE: December 14, 2015

RE: Tax Incentive Review Council

Commissioners have the responsibility to appoint members to several Boards and Commissions, providing oversight to many important organizations and initiatives in Hamilton County. One of these Boards, the Tax Incentive Review Council (TIRC), has five positions set to expire on December 31, 2015. Two of these open positions will serve as "alternate" positions, and all terms expire on December 31, 2016.

I invite you to consider applying to be a member on this important Board, which designates areas as Enterprise Zones or Community Reinvestment areas and executes agreements with certain enterprises for the purpose of establishing, expanding, renovating or occupying facilities and hiring new employees and preserving jobs within said zones or areas in exchange for specified local tax incentives granted by the County. In addition, this important economic development body reviews all outstanding agreements to determine whether the businesses are in compliance with terms and conditions of those incentives, and makes recommendations to the Board of Commissioners.

As with all of the Boards that the Hamilton County Commissioners appoint to, open positions on the Tax Incentive Review Council must be filled with County residents in order to provide a representative and accountable decision-making body. In the coming weeks, Commissioners will be collecting and reviewing applications for the Tax Incentive Review Council.

I encourage all interested residents to apply to serve on this important Board! To apply, download the application here: http://www.hamiltoncountyohio.gov/boards_commissions/forms/application.asp, and fax, email or mail your application to:
