Parenting Coordinator Biographies

Ross M. Evans, Esq.

Ross Evans is a graduate of the University of Cincinnati where he received a Bachelor of Science in Psychology in 1983 and a Juris Doctor in 1986. He served in Hamilton County Juvenile Court, presiding over custody, visitation, paternity, and delinquency cases until 1996. Mr. Evans left the bench and has been in private practice for over 20 years, focusing exclusively on Collaborative Practice, Mediation, and Limited Scope Representation in Family Law matters. In December 2016, along with his long-time Partner, Ellen Essig, Mr. Evans opened Essig & Evans LLP, a boutique firm focusing on Family and Fertility Law. Mr. Evans has appeared and argued before the Ohio Supreme Court and is admitted to practice before the Supreme Court of the United States.

Mr. Evans, who continues to serve the Court as a Guardian ad Litem and Parenting Coordinator, is a founding member of the Cincinnati Academy of Collaborative Professionals where he has served on the steering committee since its inception and as the President from 2007 to 2009. In June 2009, Mr. Evans was elected to serve on the Board of Directors of the International Academy of Collaborative Professionals and in October 2013, he became President of the IACP and currently serves ex officio on the board. He has served on the faculty and planning committee for the Ohio Judicial College and has lectured regularly for the Cincinnati and Ohio State Bar Associations in Family Law related topics.

Shawn M. Evans, Esq.

Shawn Evans co-founded Goldberg Evans in 2019. Shawn practices exclusively in the areas of domestic relations including divorce, dissolution, prenuptial agreements, property settlements, spousal support, and parenting matters including child custody, parenting time, child support and grandparents' rights. In addition to having extensive trial experience, Shawn is also collaboratively trained and a member of the Cincinnati Association of Collaborative Professionals. She is also qualified to serve as a Guardian ad Litem and Parenting Coordinator.

Shawn was selected for inclusion in the 2013, 2015-2020 Super Lawyers® Ohio Rising Stars list and was selected for inclusion in the Best Lawyers in America 2019-2020. Currently, Shawn is the Chair of the Domestic Relations Committee at the Cincinnati Bar Association.

Shawn is a lifelong Cincinnati, having attended Indian Hill High School, where she now serves as a legal advisor to the Indian Hill Mock Trial team. Shawn has successfully coached the team to two state championships and attended the National High School Mock Trial Tournament in Albuquerque, New Mexico and Indianapolis, Indiana.

Tiffany M. Evans, Esq.

Tiffany Evans is a Domestic Relations Attorney, Guardian ad Litem for children, Family Law Mediator, and Parenting Coordinator at Keating Muething & Klekamp. She has dedicated her career to helping families and children. Ms. Evans' practice is concentrated on high conflict custody cases where her approach is to minimize the level of conflict between the parties so the subject children are as immune as possible from their parents' strife. In addition to custody cases, Ms. Evans represents individuals in all matters related to family law, including divorce, dissolution, legal separation, support actions, paternity actions, pre-marital agreements, parenting time matters, and abuse and neglect proceedings.

Prior to joining Keating Muething & Klekamp, Tiffany was an associate at Mayerson Abramowitz & Kahn, LLP in New York City, a Tier I Matrimonial Law Firm, which has consistently been recognized in New York's "Best Lawyers in America." Prior to working at Mayerson, she was a child advocacy attorney at the Children's Law Center in the Bronx, New York, where she represented abused children in custody, visitation, and abuse and neglect cases. Tiffany received a Bachelor's Degree from the University of Virginia in 2000. She received her Juris Doctor from the Fordham University School of Law in 2007.

Tiffany appreciates the art of delicate negotiation in high conflict situations, while recognizing that some cases require a more robust approach. Whatever the dynamic of the case, her most important objective is to minimize the level of dysfunction and pain experienced by families that are litigating while always protecting her client's interests.

Erinn McKee Hannigan, Esq.

Erinn McKee Hannigan is an Honors College graduate of Ball State University and received her law degree from Loyola University Chicago School of Law in 2002. She earned a Certificate of Childlaw from Loyola by concentrating her legal studies in the areas of child and family law. She was admitted to the North Carolina bar in 2002 and the Ohio bar in 2006.

Erinn is unique in that she chose to attend law school for the sole purpose of becoming a domestic relations attorney. Upon graduation, she kept true to her goal and practices exclusively in domestic relations. Erinn works hard to help guide her clients towards their new normal. She works not only within the court system in litigation as an attorney for children or as a GAL but aids her clients in various forms of alternative dispute resolution practices as well. Erinn was trained in family law arbitration in North Carolina in 2004; collaborative practice in 2008; domestic relations mediation in 2011; Guardian ad Litem in 2018 and Parenting Coordination in 2018. Erinn began mediating domestic relations cases as a mediator in 2016. She practices and provides mediation services to clients in Hamilton, Warren, Clermont and Butler counties in Ohio.

Erinn served as the co-chair of the Cincinnati Academy of Collaborative Professionals and continues to serve on the board of that organization. Erinn is a member of the Domestic Relations Section of the Cincinnati Bar Association, the Ohio Bar Association, the North Carolina Bar Association, the Association of Family and Conciliatory Courts and the International Association of Collaborative Professionals. Erinn is consistently named as a Super Lawyer in Ohio since 2007 and was named as one of the Top 25 Women Lawyers in Cincinnati in 2016 and 2019.

Susan E. Miller, M.Ed.

Susan Miller graduated from Hanover College with a Bachelor of Arts in Communications, and graduated from Xavier University with a Master of Education. Ms. Miller taught in Ft. Lauderdale, Florida, and in Cincinnati, Ohio, before working as a parent educator at Beech Acres Parenting Center.

Ms. Miller also served at Beech Acres as a parenting coach, conflict coach, and co-mediator. She was a facilitator for the Families in Conflict program, and still currently teaches Helping Children Cope with Divorce for Beech Acres. She has continued to practice parent and conflict coaching and mediation through her business, Parent Resolve. Helping parents breach communication boundaries to support their children is her primary passion and focus. Ms. Miller trained as a mediator and a parenting coordinator at the Supreme Court of Ohio.

Melanie E. Mize, Esq.

Melanie Mize is a Cincinnati native. She attended Norwood High School and graduated with honors from the University of Cincinnati in 2005. She then went on to pursue a legal education at Salmon P. Chase College of Law where she received a Juris Doctor in 2008.

Melanie has been practicing in Domestic Relations and Juvenile Courts since 2009. She has a passion for finding a solution that minimizes the impact of litigation on children.

Melanie is licensed to practice law in Ohio, as well as in the U.S. District Court for the Southern District of Ohio. She has successfully completed all necessary Ohio Supreme Court training and is qualified to serve as a Guardian ad Litem, Parenting Coordinator, and Mediator. Melanie is also collaboratively trained.

Elizabeth R. Murray, Esq.

Elizabeth Murray opened her own practice, Murray Law LLC, in 2019. She concentrates her practice in the area of domestic relations. Domestic relations include divorce, dissolution, prenuptial agreements, adoptions, custody issues, post decree matters, child and spousal support, grandparents' rights, visitation, and collaborative law. Elizabeth also serves as a Guardian ad Litem in numerous cases representing the best interests of the children in a custody dispute. Elizabeth is a certified mediator and parenting coordinator.

Elizabeth is a member of the Cincinnati Academy of Collaborative Professionals which is a group that strives to make the process of ending a marriage less stressful by providing clients with the skills to focus on their family's interests, needs, and goals. Through collaborative law, the parties are able to control the situation, craft individual agreements, and create a healthy environment for their children.

Elizabeth graduated with a Bachelor of Science from the University of Cincinnati in 1987. Three years later, she graduated from the Northern Kentucky University Salmon P. Chase College of Law.

Lindsey Neyra Philp, Esq.

Lindsey Neyra Philp is a licensed attorney in the State of Ohio and Kentucky. She attended college at Northwestern University and graduated in 2003. She received a Juris Doctor in 2008 from Salmon P. Chase College of Law.

Lindsey has focused on her practice in the area of Domestic Relations since starting her private practice in 2009. She is also a trained mediator and Guardian ad Litem. Lindsey is also trained in Collaborative Law.

Lindsey is originally from St. Louis, having attended Mary Institute and St. Louis Country School. She lives in Kenwood with her husband and their three children.

Patricia O'Malley, Esq.

Patricia O'Malley is an honors graduate of UCLA receiving a B. A. in English. She received her law degree from the University of California, Hastings College of Law in 1996. She is licensed to practice law in California and Ohio.

Her professional experience is diverse and varied. She was an extern for the Court of Appeals, 1st District, San Francisco, California. Following her term at the Court of Appeals, she was in-house legal counsel for a large credit corporation in California. Upon moving to the Midwest to start a family, she took a reprieve from her professional aspirations to be a stay-at-home mother until 2012, when she returned to a full-time civil litigation practice.

Shortly after her return to law practice, she realized that her professional and personal lives would intersect. As a divorced mother of two children, she has a first-hand appreciation and understanding of the stresses and challenges both parents and children face. Because of this, she is passionate about assisting families and now focuses her practice solely on family law matters.

Patricia is trained as a mediator and a parenting coordinator and provides mediation services primarily to clients in Hamilton, Warren, Clermont and Butler Counties in Ohio. Her effectiveness as a mediator and parenting coordinator is born of training, education, practice, and personal experience. She is effective because she gets it, she lives it.

Leslie H. Swift, Ph.D., LLC

Les Swift is a grandfather of three, a father of two, and a husband of one. He is a child and family psychologist and an Advanced Practitioner of the Association for Conflict Resolution. He is a former president of the Cincinnati Academy of Professional Psychology and of the Ohio Psychological Association.

He specializes in working with families going through divorce, offering mediation, child and family treatment, parent counseling, and parenting coordination.

Jennifer R. Szeghi, MA

Jennifer Szeghi is a Parent Coach, Adjunct Instructor, and Parenting Coordinator. For nine years she has thrived in her business, Successful Parenting, LLC, helping parents whose children have behavioral issues, as well as specializing with families going through a divorce. Mrs. Szeghi's professional experience includes working with children and adolescents as an Outpatient Mental Health Therapist, Mental Health Specialist in the Psychiatric Unit, a Residential Treatment Counselor in Juvenile Detention, and as an Intake/Family Therapist in Cook County Juvenile Court. Mrs. Szeghi has taught at Cincinnati State Community College as an adjunct instructor of Psychology since 2005. Mrs. Szeghi graduated from The Chicago School of Professional Psychology (CSOPP) in 2005 with a Master of Arts in Forensic Psychology. In 2010, she received a Graduate Certificate in Child & Adolescent Psychology from CSOPP. She continues to take advantage of educational opportunities, including trainings from The Ohio Supreme Court.

Mrs. Szeghi is a mother of two sons, both of whom experienced broken homes. She co-parents with her son's father and with her stepson's mother. These experiences help Mrs. Szeghi empathize, better understand what such families are going through, and have confidence in the effectiveness of her techniques, as they have been successful with her family.

Daryle C. Tibbs, Esq.

Daryle C. Tibbs received her Juris Doctor from Capital University in January, 2010. She received an endorsement for her pro bono work with the Ohio Public Defender's Office and practiced as a legal intern through Capital's Legal Clinic. Daryle obtained her license in the State of Ohio in May, 2011 and in the Commonwealth of Kentucky in May, 2016.

Daryle is a lifelong resident of Cincinnati and proud alum of William Mason High School. After finishing her education and working for another firm for approximately one year, Daryle returned to Cincinnati and opened Tibbs Law Office in March, 2011. She has over 10 years of experience working in the social service arena, from adoption to school based services and providing various trainings.

Melanie B. Walls, Esq.

Melanie B. Walls is a licensed attorney in the state of Ohio and commonwealth of Kentucky. Melanie graduated from Xavier University Magna Cum Laude with a Bachelor of Science, Business Administration and received her Juris Doctor from Salmon P. Chase College of Law. Melanie has been practicing in Domestic Relations and Juvenile courts since 1997.

Melanie serves the Hamilton County Domestic Relations court as a Guardian ad Litem and Parenting Coordinator. She is a trained mediator. Melanie is certified by the Ohio State Bar Association as a specialist in Family Relations law. This certification makes Melanie one of a small group of attorneys in Ohio to have earned this distinction. In her family law practice, Melanie works with parents to resolve child related conflicts. Melanie helps parents reach child focused decisions.

Gayle M. Warm, Esq.

Gayle M. Warm practices exclusively in the area of family law. She received her Bachelor of Science Degree from the University of Illinois Champaign-Urbana in 1997 and her Juris Doctor, cum laude, from Loyola University Chicago School of Law in 2000. Following law school, she served as a Judicial Law Clerk for the Honorable Morton Denlow (Ret.) in the United States District Court for the Northern District of Illinois.

Gayle and her family returned to Cincinnati in 2008 after spending 11 years in Chicago where she was a labor attorney for the City of Chicago. As a practicing Ohio family law attorney, Gayle has several years of experience representing clients in litigation, negotiation, and conflict resolution, as well as divorce, dissolution, custody and parenting issues, child support cases, and spousal support matters. She is a trained Collaborative Practitioner, a Certified Divorce Mediator, and Parenting Coordinator. She is a member of the American Bar Association, Ohio State Bar Association (Family Law Committee), Cincinnati Bar Association (Domestic Relations Committee), the Cincinnati Academy of Collaborative Professionals, and the International Academy of Collaborative Professionals. She is also a regular speaker at Second Saturday, a divorce workshop session for women.
